Academy of Medical Royal Colleges (2008) A Code of Practice for the Diagnosis and Confirmation of Death. London: Academy of Medical Royal Colleges. Quality Improvement Strategies. More than 40 years ago, Donabedian 27 proposed measuring the quality of health care by observing its structure, processes, and outcomes. Structure measures assess the accessibility, availability, and quality of resources, such as health insurance, bed capacity of a hospital, and number of nurses with advanced training. Nursing is a profession within the health care sector focused on the care of individuals, families, and communities so they may attain, maintain, or recover optimal health and quality of life. Nurses may be differentiated from other health care providers by their approach to patient care, training, and scope of practice. Nurses practice in many specialties with differing levels of prescription ...
